

architecture & interior design

Pizza Luce

Understanding the client means understanding their customer, and Lucé's downtown patrons are as diverse as their menu. The design needed to cater to this broad spectrum of diners and drinkers. Situated in the Textile building, with its open-beam wood ceiling, original wood floors, cast iron columns, and exposed brick, the space provided the perfect canvas for bold graphics, vibrant colors, versatile lighting, and local artwork.

CATEGORY

Restaurant | Hospitality

LOCATION

119 N 4th St,
Minneapolis, MN